

YAHYA IBRAHIM ALIYU CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Biography of Barrister Yahya Ibrahim Aliyu

Overview

Barrister Yahya Ibrahim Aliyu is a distinguished Nigerian legal practitioner, legal consultant, philanthropist, and community development advocate whose career has been defined by professional excellence, integrity, and service to humanity.

Education

Born on 14 October 1972 in Kabara, Kano Municipal Local Government Area of Kano State, Nigeria, he began his education at Aliyu Bin Abi Dalib Primary School before attending Government Arabic College (G.A.C.), Gwale, graduating in 1994. He later studied at the Aminu Kano School of Legal and Islamic Studies as a member of the Class of 1997.

Legal Training

He obtained his Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) degree from Bayero University Kano in 2003 and completed the Nigerian Law School in 2005, earning the Barrister-at-Law (B.L.) qualification and admission to the Nigerian Bar.

Professional Career

Throughout his legal career, Barrister Yahya Ibrahim Aliyu has provided legal services and consultancy with dedication to justice, ethics, and professionalism. In recognition of his standing within the legal profession, he was appointed a Notary Public of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

Humanitarian Leadership

Beyond legal practice, he is the Founder and President of the Yahya Ibrahim Aliyu Charitable Foundation, promoting educational advancement, humanitarian assistance, poverty alleviation, and community welfare through impactful initiatives.

Legacy

He is widely respected for his leadership, philanthropy, and commitment to empowering communities. His work continues to inspire younger generations through service, responsible leadership, and unwavering dedication to justice and social progress.

Justice • Service • Compassion • Leadership